

This is a printer friendly version of an article from www.fosters.com
To print this article open the file menu and choose Print.

Back

Article published Mar 19, 2010

Selig, Francoeur will lead Public Policy board

CONCORD — The New Hampshire Center for Public Policy Studies, a non-profit, independent, non-partisan public policy research organization based in Concord, announces the following appointments to its board of directors.

Todd Selig of Durham has been named chair of the Center's board. Selig has served as Durham's town administrator since 2001.

Shelia Francoeur of Hampton has been named vice chair of the board. Francoeur is a former New Hampshire State Representative and served in the N.H. House for 10 years. During that time she served as Speaker Pro Tem, Majority Whip and Chair of the Commerce Committee.

University System of New Hampshire Chancellor Emeritus Dr. Stephen Reno and long-time Legislative Budget Assistant Michael Buckley have been elected to the Center's board.

Continuing to serve on the board are: secretary-treasurer Brian Walsh of Hanover, chair emeritus Martin Gross of Concord and chair emeritus Donna Sytek of Salem, John Crosier of Dover, William Dunlap of Amherst, Chuck Morse of Salem, Mike Smith of Lyme, Kimon Zachos of Manchester and Lew Feldstein of Hancock.
